

PENLAND GALLERY

NATE COTTERMAN

Cleveland, OH

GLASS | Blown glass

Penland Affiliation | Penland Instructor 2017, Penland Resident Artist 2018 - 2021

Artist Information | Studio artist; education: BFA Cleveland Institute of Art (OH); teaching: Penland School (NC), Pittsburgh Glass Center (PA), Pilchuck School of Glass (WA), Cleveland Institute of Art (OH); exhibitions: New York International Gift Exhibition (Accent on Design, NYC), Architectural Digest Exhibition (MADE, NYC).

Artist Bio | Nate Cotterman is known for his modern interpretation of glass objects, using traditional Venetian glass-blowing techniques, he challenges low-end production with innovative design and handmade quality. Nate Cotterman has created a line of barware, lighting, & home décor that is both subtle and powerful. His simple forms highlight the natural beauty of the material.

Nate Cotterman Glass comprises- Nate Cotterman, designer, maker, and CFO, and his wife, Antonia Campanella, marketing, design, and sales.

Nate graduated from the Cleveland Institute of Art with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Glass. He has worked as a gaffer for some of today's top designers and makers. He is a sought-after instructor in the field, having demonstrated across the US at institutions such as the University of Montana, Cleveland Institute of Art, Pittsburgh Glass Center, and Pilchuck School of Glass.