Artist Information | Studio artist; teaches nationally and internationally; residencies: Glasgow School of Art (Scotland), Findhorn Foundation (Scotland); exhibitions: Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art (CO), Loveland Sculpture Show (CO), Coors Western Art Exhibit (Denver); publications: 500 Animals in Clay, and Dreaming Out Loud: An Artist in Clay Rebuilds Her Life

Artist Statement | I received a BFA in Ceramics at the University of North Carolina and have worked with clay for over 40 years. Currently, my figurative sculptures are evocations of a dream world. My inspiration comes from mythology, fairy tales, dreams and the antics of animals and children. Publications include Ceramics: Art and Perception, Lark Books, The Shambhala Sun, and Better Homes and Gardens. My work is in the National Museum for Women in the Arts and other private collections.
