

PENLAND GALLERY

SANDRA SELL

Little Rock, AR

WOOD | Sculpture

Penland Affiliation | Penland Instructor 2019, Penland Student 2014, 2016

Artist Information | Studio artist; education: MA Art, University of Arkansas; teaching: University of North Carolina Asheville, Grand Prairie Art Center (AR), Little Rock Air Force Base Art Program (AR); exhibitions: Materials: Hard + Soft International Contemporary Craft Competition and Exhibition, Greater Denton Arts Council (TX), Women's Works 30th & 31st Anniversary, Old Court House Art Center (IL), Small Works, National Association of Women Artists (NY), Curiosity Revealed, Thea Foundation (AR), Merging Form and Surface, Pulaski Technical College Center for Humanities and Arts (AR), Longevity, Arkansas Capital Corporation Group (AR); collections: Arkansas Arts Center, University of Arkansas in Little Rock, Historic Arkansas Museum

Artist Bio | A native of New Hampshire, Sandra Sell grew up with a passion for visually emulating nature and constructing objects. Upon completing a career in the military, Sell relocated to Arkansas where she earned an M.A. in Art from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. With experience in drawing, painting, and sculpture, she strives to convey the observations of her emotional responses to life in her work.

Technical Information | Carved wood