

BENJAMIN DIMMITT

Fairview, NC

benjamin@benjamindimmitt.com

Photography | Landscape photography

Penland Affiliation | Penland Instructor, 2022

Artist Information | Studio artist, educator; education: Eckerd College BA, International Center of Photography, Santa Reparata Graphic Art Centre, City & Guild Arts School, Santa Fe Photographic Workshop; exhibitions: Asheville Art Museum (NC), Southeast Museum of Photography (FL), Center For Photographic Art (CA), Griffin Museum of Photography (MA), Photo+Sphere Festival (NC), Ogden Museum of Southern Art (LA), Museum of Fine Arts, Houston (TX), Florida Museum of Photographic Arts (FL), International Center of Photography (NY).

Artist Biography | Benjamin was born and raised on the Gulf Coast of Florida. He moved to NYC after college and taught at the International Center of Photography for 12 years. He moved to the Asheville area in 2014 and began a long term project photographing the impact of global warming and sea level rise on Florida wetlands. The University of Georgia Press will publish a book of that project in the fall of 2023.

Technical Information | Black & white photography using film. Selenium-toned gelatin silver prints and archival pigment prints.